A heartfelt thank you to Amit Garg ji

From the very beginning, you have stood by Will To Win Paathshala like a true pillar of strength. Every small and big wish of our children – from new sweaters, clothes, and socks for the first time, to celebrating birthdays and organizing sports day – you have made it all possible.

Before our children even ask again, their wishes are already fulfilled... that's the kind of care and love you bring into their lives.

You are not just a supporter, you are our strongest backbone.

Because of you, our Paathshala children dare to dream bigger every single day.

Thank you for being family

Hi Amit,
How are you?

Everything is going well at Paathshala. The discipline has improved quite a bit, and the entire team is now working sincerely and putting in a lot of effort. A few new members have also joined us, including some government school teachers and a few corporate professionals who have started extending whatever financial support they can.

We have also started another centre, Kala Kaushal Kendra, in collaboration with the Senior Citizens Welfare Association. We have currently paused the village project, so at the moment, both our initiatives are running in Vasant Kunj, Delhi.

Thank you so much, Amit. We are always grateful for your support and Encouragement

Thank you Amitji. We were already committed but there was hardly any fund. You have saved us. Now it will be a successful program. Thank you once again 🙏

01:36

Thanks Amitji. Your support is very valuable to us.

Our last two programs in rural area were quite big and we have exhausted our fund. We need some time to raise funds. An arrangement of INR8,000/- will help us to successfully execute this project.

It's a request only.

Regards

Madhabendra Mitra

Amit Garg ji proved it.

Thank you, Amit, for supporting us in running the NGO. At one point, we were wondering how we'd manage, but you encouraged us and stood by us like a backbone. Your contribution to the children's education, providing socks to those who needed them in this cold... some kids had only one pair, which is really tough. You gave them comfort in this cold.
